

Legacies

We are enormously grateful to everyone who leaves a legacy to the Fund.

It helps us to ensure that our vital work can continue for many generations to come.

It can be quite difficult to talk about making a will, particularly if everything in your life is going fine and there seems no need to worry about the future. But making a will can protect your loved ones and ensure that your estate goes to those you want it to.

Making a charitable donation through your will can also reduce the amount of inheritance tax levied on your estate.

Letting us know that you are leaving a legacy to the Fund is easy and straightforward. Simply go to our Make A Pledge page and fill in the form.
