

Weather Watch

Bad weather is something we can do nothing to prevent.

Every year we receive numerous applications from people who have been subjected to gales, floods, and other extreme conditions.

We can't stop it from happening; however, we can help you know when the bad weather's about to strike.

The latest weather UK weather warnings from the Met Office will be displayed here. Keep checking back regularly so that you can at least get some advance warning of the very worst the British climate can throw at us!
