However, some of our beneficiaries have kindly given us permission to use their stories to help us tell you the many ways in which we get things done.

We are extremely grateful to them.

Help At First Hand

Stefan Child is a severely autistic young boy. His father, who works in the civil service, applied to us for help towards the cost of a 2-week stay at a dolphin therapy centre in Florida. We were happy to help, and the visit has had a tremendous effect on Stefan's quality of life.

His parents have kindly given us permission to show you how your support made a massive difference:
